passed from their control. Mr. Samuel H. Pulliam was elected superintendent of Monroe Ward.

THE INAUGURATION OF JACKSON'S STATUE. -A committee of artists has been appointed by the Governor to prepare designs for decorations to be used in the ceremonies attending the inauguration of the Jackson statue.

Carpenters are at work preparing to erect arches over the various entrances to the unt received from Overseer of the Capitol Square. These will be covered with or of Henrico county for board of in- evergreens and banners and contain appropriate inscriptions. The grand arch will be mates for quarter ending September 30th, placed at the gate of the Capitol Square nearest St. Paul's church. Another arch of similar character will be erected probably at the corner of Fifth and Main streets, and of missions, which were listened to with another, if the money holds out, below the Old Market, on Main street.

The part of the pedestal upon which the statue rests will be erected and the statue of Mr. John Mackie, of the church choir. put in place Monday night. Workmen are now engaged cutting the inscription, and are strictly charged not to divulge the character | will be held on the third Sunday in Novemof the inscription to any one. On the night following the unveiling of the statue there will be probably the greatest display of fireworks eyer seen in Richmond, and the houses on all the principal thoroughfares will be illuminated. .

W. H. L. Coombs, who is secretary of numerous colored societies, informs us that General Harry Heth, the acting chief mar-shal, has addressed him a letter inviting all the colored orders and societies of Richmond and Manchester to participate in the ceremonies of inauguration. The invitation has been accepted by many orders and societies. The surviving members of the Virginia

Life Guard, Young Guard, Company A, and all other members of the Fifteenth Regiment Virginia volunteers, will assemble at the armory of the Guard of the Commonwealth, corner of Thirteenth and Main streets, this evening at 8 o'clock, to effect an organization for the purpose of participating in the ceremonies. Wednesday morning a rendezvous will be provided for the ladies of the city and country to make wreaths and other decorations for the pageant in honor of Stonewall Jackson, and men formerly of the signal corps attached to the cavalry corps of the Army of Northern belition of A. T. Mitchell and others for Virginia are to meet Captain Richard E. TEXAS JACK AND BUFFALO BILL.-The entertainment given at the Theatre last night by Texas Jack, Buffilo Bill, George Reed & Co., attracted a very large male audience and gave eminent satisfaction. Indeed, they were overwhelmed with applause.

The performance commenced with the comedy of "Thrice Married," in which Mille Morlacchi assumed the character of Signora La Morona Norona, a Spanish danseuse. She charmed the audience with her singing and dancing, and was encored several times, and each time was loudly applauded as she left the stage. on the Border" (which concluded the performance) is a thrilling drama, and was applauded to the echo There are some very amusing and enjoyable features in it, and only one or two objectionable ones. "Jedediah Broadbrim," a peace commissioner, adds a great deal to the interest of the play. We would suggest, however, that if some of his expressions were omitted the drama would be much more refined and attractive. Of course during their stay here they wil have crowded bouses. Reserved seats may be secured at Wyatt's. To-night the pro gramme of last evening will be repeated. On Wednesday night "The Scouts of the Plains" and "The Widow's Victim" are
